PASTOR JOTS IT DOWN

Next Sunday (November 20) is the Feast of CHRIST THE KING and it will be a big day for our Parish. At the 11:00 AM Mass Anne Kirby will be received into the Church by Profession of Faith and Danny Gomez and Candace Crooks will be Baptized. Both will receive first Eucharist and the Sacrament of Confirmation.

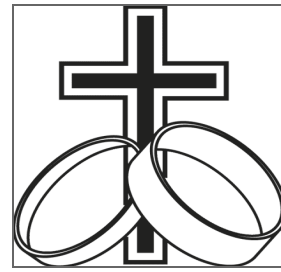

At this same Mass we will celebrate the special anniversaries (i.e., increments of five years) of married couples. In an age when the wonder and dignity and sacredness of Marriage is being attacked, it is good for us to stop and celebrate this great Sacrament. After the special blessing of the Mass there will be a reception for these couples in the Family Life Center.

Earlier, at the 8:00 AM Mass on the same day, Matthew Bonicci will receive the Eucharist for the first time. We praise God in His goodness for giving us these Sacraments of life. I pray that we all will avail ourselves more often of the Sacraments of the Eucharist and Reconciliation and thus be able to live our Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Matrimony and Holy Orders.

Our choirs have now introduced us to the song parts of the revised Mass texts. We need to use the cards in the pews so that we can each be a part of these prayers. In two weeks the entire revised Mass translation will be used; I pray that we will all receive these with joy and understanding in order that our communal prayer will be more meaningful and inspiring.

Love and blessings to all

Monsignor Lewis

ROMAN MISSAL

SPECIFIC CHANGES IN WORDING IN THE MASS TEXTS

Change in the Words of Institution over the chalice

It will be shed for you and for all-It will be shed for you and for many...

This change in wording of the new Mass translation came from a specific request made by our Holy Father, Benedict XVI. He asked that in all the vernacular translations of the Roman Missal the words the priest says over the chalice should be, “it will be shed for you and for many” instead of “it will be shed for you and for all.” The New American Bible comments that this use of “many,” found in several places in the Gospels, is a Semitic form of expression which does not imply that some are excluded, but which is the equivalent of “all.”

Changes in wording in some of the people’s parts

And also with you-And with your spirit

The new wording of the response we make so often in the liturgy, “And with your spirit,” more directly translates the original Latin “Et cum spiritu tuo.” The new translation also serves to bring our more clearly that the Holy Spirit is at work in both priest and people (though in different ways) as we gather to celebrate Eucharist.

Creed

We believe in one God-I believe in one God

The new wording of the beginning of the Creed, “I believe” is a more direct translation of the Latin “credo”. “I believe” also brings out more clearly the personal commitment involved in faith. Saying “I believe in God” is not just stating an idea or accepting a doctrine, it is an act of personal commitment.

One in being with the Father-Consubstantial with the Father

Within the Creed, one of the changes is that we will say of the Lord Jesus that he is “consubstantial with the Father” instead of “one being with the Father.” The term “consubstantial” comes from the word used in the Latin text of the Creed. This change in terminology does not at all indicate a change in meaning, but rather a more precise identification that Christ is of the same substance, nature, and essence as the Father.

Day of Reflection on “Implementation of Gospel Music in the New Roman Missal” The office of Worship and the African Ancestry Ministry & Evangelization Network Present the Annual Day of Reflection on “Implementation of Gospel Music in the New Roman Missal.” The workshop will be presented by Mr. Rawn Harbor, Gospel music writer and national known speaker, on November 19th, 2011 at 9:00am at St. Mary Catholic Church in Goldsboro. School Notes from Miss Warwick

We had a wonderful turn out at our first Bingo/Chicken Dinner night on Friday. It was great to see the families having fun together and enjoying other families company. I would like to thank the Home and School Association for organizing this "fun" event. The Knights of Columbus were generous and gave us a new set of Bingo balls. We are now ready to have fun playing Bingo.

We were proud to see so many of our students volunteering at the recent "Special Olympics Spaghetti Dinner." When our students are out volunteering in the community, we receive comments about how well they behave and how kind they are to other people. Hopefully, we will find other ways to do community service.

The school has been fortunate to have two wonderful speakers recently come to the school. We had Mr. Larry Baldwin, the Neuse Riverkeeper, talk to the students about how important the quality of our water is. Detective Brown, from the New Bern Police Department, also came and spoke to the students. Among the topics he spoke about were the problems associated with "bullying." Our thanks to these two speakers for taking time out of their busy schedules to visit our school.

The Catholic Daughters recently held their Christmas Boutique. It was my pleasure to work with this group of hard working ladies. My job was to work in the kitchen and I really had to work. The Catholic Daughters are generous to our school and Church. In order to continue with all of their charitable contributions it was important that the Boutique be the success it was. Thank you Catholic Daughters, for all of your dedication to helping others.

After school tutoring is going well. My thanks go to Mrs. Judy Donnelly and Mrs. Nancy Stewart for organizing the tutoring sessions. As with most of our activities it is the volunteers that really keep them going. Our wonderful tutors are made up of parishioners and a few school parents and grandparents. The students are benefitting from the generous time and talents being given to them. We thank everyone for helping to enhance our student's education.

Our basketball season is just beginning. The students are practicing hard to get ready for their first games. The cheerleaders will be there cheering them on. We wish them well this season.

Tutors and After School Help Needed-We have started the tutoring and after school program. However, we still need more tutors. It is very rewarding to see the students make progress as you help them. The tutoring program would involve being available after school at least one day per week from Monday thru Thursday. The time would be from 2:45 to 4 pm. We need to know what subject or subjects you feel confident to tutor and in which grades. We need help with all grades and subjects. For assisting with the after school program, you would need to be at school at 2:45 until 4 pm, to help the after school care director. If you are interested in either program or have any questions please call Nancy Stewart 633-9419 or e-mail stewsn@coastalnet.com

All persons involved in ministry with children can expect to be screened and take the Safe Child Training Class which will be held when we have 5 or more.

FOOD FOR THE HUNGRY

Please bring healthy, non-perishable food items next weekend November 19th and 20th to all Masses, for distribution to our Hispanic brothers and sisters experiencing hunger. Non-perishable food items may be left at all of the church exits. Baskets will be placed at the exits for monetary donations. Thank you for your kindness and generosity.

Christmas Cards are Back

The Knights of Columbus will be selling Catholic Christmas Cards at all the Masses on the weekends of Nov. 13, 20 and 27. The cards have greetings in English, Spanish, Italian, and Tagalog. Profits from these sales will go to the Knights of Columbus charitable programs. Lud Hartung (633-5987) is coordinating the sale.

MOVIE OF THE MONTH - An Old-Fashioned Thanksgiving

is a short story by Louisa May Alcott. It is a sweet and uplifting holiday film. It is a story of family forgiveness between Mary, a recently widowed mother of 3 children, and her wealthy and estranged mother, Isabella, who suddenly comes to visit. Mary resents her mother's attempt to help them with financial difficulties. Things are so bad this year, they can't afford a turkey for their holiday dinner. In the end, more than money is needed to heal the wounds between mother and daughter in this inspirational drama. Join us on November 20 at 2:30 in St. Joseph Chapel.

Through the loving mercy of God, and our new hearts, circumcised by the Holy Spirit, he has given the unique promise "to see the face of God". Join us for the Chaplet of Divine Mercy this Sunday, Nov. 13, in St. Joseph Chapel at 10:30AM.

Stewardship is a way of life that we choose to live, using the gifts entrusted to us by God, based on the teachings of Jesus Christ.
