Thirty-First Sunday In Ordinary Time

The Pastor Jots It Down:

Since arriving at St. Paul two plus years ago I have desired a statue of St. Martin de Porres for our Church that is of the same size as the other statues in the Church. It was a long search, assisted by Hugh McHugh, until we finally found an affordable statue made in Colombia, 58 inches tall. The statue was four months in the making, two weeks in shipping, a week in customs in Miami and now is here. I am grateful to Richard Mora and his family for the donation of this statue in memory of his Father Faustino Mora.

St. Martin was born in Lima, Peru in 1575, the son of a Spanish nobleman and a freed black slave from Panama. As a young man he was drawn to the Dominican Order – but the laws of the time forbade “Indians, blacks and their descendants from joining Religious Orders”. Encouraged by his close friend, St. Rose of Lima, he persevered and was finally Professed as a Lay Brother when he was 24. St. Martin spent his life as a Dominican caring for the sick and the poor. Like Mother Theresa of our day he searched out the most abandoned, the most needy and cared for them. He died in 1639, already considered a saint by all who knew him. However the culture being what it was, he was not declared a BLESSED until 1837, and then not canonized a Saint until 1962. He is the Patron of Social Justice and race relations. His Feast Day is November 3rd.

St. Martin de Porres is the Secondary Patron of the Church in Latin America and of African American Catholics in our own country. I believe that it is most fitting that we now have this shrine recognizing the various cultures that make up the St. Paul Parish Family. Through the intercession of St. Martin de Porres, may we live our motto, “Our Family Together!”

Love and blessings
Monsignor Lewis

THE ROMAN MISSAL-THIRD EDITION

Why a new Roman Missal now?

During his long pontificate, our late Holy Father, John Paul II, added many new saints to the Roman calendar. As a result, in the year 2000, he approved a third edition of the Roman Missal in Latin to include Mass texts for all these new saints. The Latin Missal is the source of the translations into all the vernacular languages.

A little later, the Vatican congregation that oversees the Liturgy, the Congregation for Divine Worship and Discipline of the Sacraments, that had already been working on a revision of the guidelines for use in translating the liturgical books, issued a new guiding document, “Liturgiam Authenticam, On the Use of Vernacular Languages in the Publications of the Books of the Roman Liturgy.” After March 2001 all new translations of the Latin Roman Missal had to follow these revised guidelines for translation. The English translation of the third edition of the Roman Missal reflects the new approach to translation—the technical name for which is “formal equivalence”—so as to make the English more accurately resemble the Latin. The desire is to provide a more beautiful and more exacting language of prayer. The goal, for those who pray as members of the Body of Christ, is that the prayer to be “to the greater Glory of God (Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam)”.

It has taken several years to translate the Missal from the original Latin to English, and the date of its use varies among English-speaking countries, but here in the United States, the first Sunday of Advent, November 27, 2011, is the date set by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops for everyone to use the new edition of the Missal at Mass.

Thirty-First Sunday In Ordinary Time

School Notes from Miss Warwick

We continue to keep busy at St. Paul Catholic School. There are so many activities that require a lot of volunteers to assist the staff. We are grateful for all of our volunteers, particularly the parishioners.

Our Science lab is shaping up and you are welcome to come over and see what your generous contributions have done for us. First and foremost, I would like to thank the Knights of Columbus, Msgr. James R. Jones, Council 3303, for their generous contribution of $2,000.00 This gracious donation enabled us to provide needed items, among them laboratory tables.

The Knights of Columbus, Assembly 1820, were kind enough to allow our students to have a "Bake Sale" at their recent yard sale. The students and parents are working hard to earn money, so they will be able to take field trips this school year.

We will be continuing to sell the Attraction Entertainment books for a few months. You may purchase them after all Masses or at the school. The profits from the sales will go to an updated Accelerated Reading and Math program.

Your response to the volunteer after school tutoring program has been tremendous. The faculty, the students and I appreciate all of our volunteers who are helping to keep this program a success. It is so rewarding to see how you can make a difference in the life of a child.

To "kick" off Red Ribbon Week, we had one of our "Moms", Assistant District Attorney, Mrs. Chekesha Hukins, present the proclamation from Mayor Lee Bettis. Mrs. Dummer, our Computer teacher, provided everyone with a red ribbon to wear. Red Ribbon Week designates anti-drugs, alcohol, and violence to make everyone aware of the problems. We would like to thank Mrs. Dummer and Ms. Peterson for preparing and organizing this fun week.

Tutors and After School Help Needed-We are in the process of finalizing plans for the tutoring and after school program. The tutoring program would involve being available after school at least one day per week from Monday thru Thursday. The time would be from 2:45pm to 4pm. We need to know what subject or subjects you feel confident to tutor and in which grades. For assisting with the after school program, you would need to be at school at 2:45 pm until 4 pm, to help the after school care director. If you are interested in either program please call Nancy Stewart 633-9419 or e-mail stewsn@coastalnet.com You will need to take the Safe Child Class before you start.

SHARING THE SPIRIT CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE

It is that time of year when we start thinking of what we can do for others during the Christmas season. Once again, St. Paul will hold the "Share the Spirit" Christmas Tree giving program. Requests for gifts must be submitted on the forms available in the church office during regular office hours. There is a limit of ONE FAMILY per sheet! Requests for gifts MUST be returned to the office by November 8, 2011. All tags will be placed on the trees when they are put up before Thanksgiving. The trees with the request tags will be placed at all entrances of the Church before Thanksgiving. If you would like to participate in "Sharing the Spirit" of Christmas, we ask that you take one or more tags from the trees and purchase the gift indicated on the tag. Please bring all gifts with the tags attached, to the Church and place them under the trees by Sunday, December 11th. We also donate to several nursing homes and in order for them to have their Christmas Party during their week, we must ask for gifts to be returned by that date. If you would like further information, or would like to volunteer to work with this rewarding ministry, please contact Mike and Karen Moore at 670-0490 or Mike and Cheryl Fries at 637-6965.

Special Congratulations to Kevin Alexander Mancera Salinas & Ava Glorivon Davis that received the sacrament of Baptism last weekend.
