*The Pastor
Jots it Down*

The Pastor Jots it Down.

I had hoped to be sending you greetings from the Vatican and St. Peter's this week, but alas, that was not to be. I am recuperating well right here in New Bern from a fall in the Church last Saturday. Sincere thanks to all who have cared for me and have fed Father Gournas and myself. You have been most solicitous and most kind. Thank you.

We have been speaking much about stewardship and generosity these past few weeks. This is so necessary for a vital, active parish. What the Lord asks of us is simply to do our share, to give back to the Lord a little of what He has given to us. In faith and love we can each find our way to do this.

As one of the largest Christian Churches in the area we are often called upon to share with our brothers and sisters. Our Parish donates regularly to Catholic Charities, The Senior Pharmacy, Religious Community Services (RCS) and others. This is only right and we all should be proud that we can do this as we struggle to meet our own internal responsibilities.

As your senior pastor, I am proud of you and all that you do. The fact that we urge you to do more is not criticism but a gentle persuasion to live the Gospel more fully. We are "a family together", called to "Share Our Gifts". Let us walk on together to make the Lord's kingdom more fully alive right here in New Bern and Craven County.

Love and blessings,
Monsignor Lewis

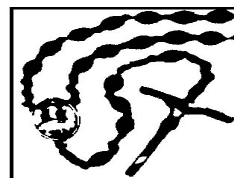

INCREASED OFFERTORY PROGRAM

Many times we are called by God to take faithful steps as we navigate through our stewardship. We have heard testimony to this the past few weeks. This week I ask you to prayerfully consider your personal sacrifice to our parish stewardship effort. Please respond so we can live up to our potential for greatness as God's people here in our own faith community. To all who have responded, thank you in God's name.

FROM THE BISHOP

The Most Reverend Michael F. Burbidge, Bishop of Raleigh, cordially invites all healthcare professionals and all who visit the sick to a special White Mass to be celebrated on the Feast of St. Luke the Physician, Monday, October 18, 2010 at 7PM at St. Thomas More Catholic Church in Chapel Hill.

In the Gospels, next to the ministry of teaching, there was nothing to which Our Lord Jesus devoted more time than to healing the sick and attending to the suffering. Our Lord seeks ever to use all physicians, nurses, those who give psychiatric care, pharmacists, therapists, laboratory technicians, social workers, dieticians, even those serving in an administrative capacity and those who visit the sick as human instruments to effect His healing. Plan on attending this special Mass to join in praying that Our Lord may guide your decisions, strengthen your compassion and confirm you always as servants of human life.

MOVIE OF THE MONTH

The next movie we will feature in the Chapel is BARABBAS. Come join us Sunday, Oct. 17th @ 3pm in the Chapel. This film is based on the fascinating passage in the New Testament when Pontius Pilate asks the people of Jerusalem whom they want freed-Jesus of Nazareth or Barabbas. Though he is set free, we can only imagine that the event haunted him all of his life. BARABBAS is a fictional story of what it may have been like for the rest of his life. Did he climb the hill at Calvary and watch the crucifixion of Jesus? Did he ever see the risen Jesus? Or, did he hear the many stories told about him? We can only hope that at some point he found faith in the one who took his place on the cross!

Fall Bible Study

Deacon Mahoney will be presenting Bible Study on the Psalms in the Family Life Center on Thursdays, October 7, 14, and 21. The study will meet in Room 2 between 9 am and 10 am on those dates. The Psalms, which are a significant part of our worship and spirituality, especially at Eucharist and in our Liturgy of the Hours are well worth study. Please join us!

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

If you can knit or crochet (or would like to learn), please join us on Tuesday mornings from 9-11AM in the atrium. We pray for the individuals who will receive the finished items. The shawls are blessed before they are given to the people. We need donations of yarn; if you have unused, left-over yarn, we will put it to good use. Anyone who knows of someone in need of a prayer shawl, please contact Sister Grace.

CHAPLET OF DIVINE MERCY

CHAPLET OF DIVINE MERCY – We believe our generation, too, was included in the words of Mary, our Mother of Mercy, in her Magnificat, Lk. 1:46-55, when she glorified that God's mercy is shared, "from generation to generation", by those who allow themselves to be guided by the fear of God. October, the month of the Rosary, is an echo of that prayer of Mary and it concerns us now! Our late Pope (Year of the Rosary -2006) entrusted the cause of peace to the Rosary, as did Mary herself at Fatima, when he called it a "treasure to be rediscovered that is more urgently needed than ever" - and even more today.. Please join us in the Chapel at 10:30 for the Chaplet of Divine Mercy to Mary's Son.

Please pray for the members of our parish who are hospitalized and for those who are homebound. We also ask for prayers for our relatives, friends and neighbors serving in the Military. May God bless them all.
