The Pastor Jots it Down:

“OUR FAMILY TOGETHER” truly came together Sunday afternoon for the annual parish picnic. It was a beautiful sight to see all of you there. My thanks to Chairman Gary Williams and committee members; Mary Ann Harper, Marcie McClure, Richard Mora, Richard Tomasik, Jean Edwards, Mary Spano, Jim Dunham and the Parish Advisory Council for sponsoring and planning this event. The Knights of Columbus and the Catholic Daughters were a tremendous help with the food and the beverages. The Hispanic Community furnished the pig. After the saga of last year’s three hundred pound pig we asked for a smaller one (150 lbs) and got what we asked for and ran out of pig. My apologies to those who did not get any - I got a hot dog, I hope you did too. To all of you who worked to make our picnic a success and to all who came I am grateful.

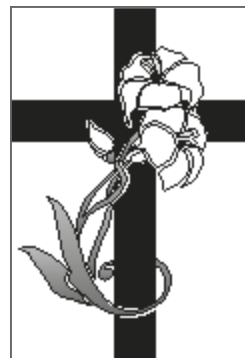

The Picnic was a good way to begin the annual renewal of our SHARING OUR GIFTS program. For sharing our gifts means the sharing of ourselves, our talents, our time and our treasures. You very generously rose to last year’s appeal to meet the financial obligations of the parish. I am confident that you will do the same this year.

Congratulations on joining in the singing of the Glory To God last Sunday. The best way to learn the new words of this beautiful prayer of praise is by singing. You should pick up the cards in your pew rack for this prayer. We all need the words and the notes will help all who know how to read them. We will slowly introduce the other sung parts of the Mass that have a new translation.

Love and Blessings to all
Monsignor Lewis

PLEASE REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS

Please pray for the repose of the souls of William Fraser, Frank Cole, and Veronica Knortz who died last week. We commend their families to your prayers.

Second Collection

Next weekend , October 1st and 2nd our second collection will be for Debt Reduction. Your generosity is greatly appreciated!

FOOD FOR THE HUNGRY

Please bring healthy non-perishable food items next weekend, October 1st and 2nd, to all Masses for distribution to our brothers and sisters experiencing hunger. Non-perishable food items may be left at all of the church exits. Baskets will be placed at the exits for monetary donations. Thank you for your kindness and generosity.

School Notes from Miss Warwick

I am happy to say our school is getting into the routine. It is a pleasure to meet new people each day. Parents and all those wanting to volunteer at St. Paul Catholic School, please note and remember that all person involved in ministry with children will be expected to be screened and undergo training by the Parish's Safe Environment (The Safe Child Training). These classes will be held when we get a group of 5 or more. I would like every parent in each household to attend the class. The classes and background check is good for 5 years. After that you will need to fill our another background check and attend the child safety class. Our school needs and depends on volunteers to provide the best education for our students.

Four of our students , Eric Storniolo, Addy Prtitulsky, Ben Fisher and Natalie Oldani were present, at the Knights of Columbus, Father Kenneth I. Parker Assembly 1820 and New Bern Elks Lodge 764, Wounded Warriors Luncheon last week. I was proud to be with them, as they led everyone in the opening prayer and the Pledge of Allegiance, before lunch. The students and I served lunches to all those that attended or came to pick up an order. This was another way that our students are out serving in the community.

Some of the students, parents and staff attended the Honor's Flight for the World War II Veterans returning to New Bern. Several of our students made posters to greet the veterans as they deplaned. Along with the posters was a "banner" saying St. Paul Catholic School Welcomes All Returning Veterans! This was a very memorable event.

We would like to thank The Kenneth I. Parker Assembly #1820 for their generous donation of new Social Studies books for grades 6 through 8. In addition The Msgr. James R. Jones Council #3303 graciously donated funds for the science lab. I along with the teachers and students always appreciate the continued support of all the Knights of Columbus.

There are still openings in each class from 3 years to 8th grade. Please feel free to stop by a tour, check our website stpaulcs.org or call 633-0100.

We look forward to hearing from you soon. We are looking for tutors and after school care helpers. If you are interested, please call Nancy Stewart at 633-9419.

FAITH FORMATION NEWS

A big thank you and prayers for blessings for those wonderful parishioners who stepped up and volunteered to be catechists and aides. May our Lord inspire and bless you for your commitment.

Thank you again.
